

Private Support Making a Difference

NOVEMBER 2004

Ken Doctor, president of the UCSC Alumni Association Council; Ken Feingold, president of the UCSC Foundation; and Acting Chancellor Martin M. Chemers announce the $1 million raised through the Scholarships Benefit Dinner and related activities.

$32.2 million sets fundraising record

UC SANTA CRUZ BEGAN ITS 40TH ANNIVERSARY year with a record $32.2 million raised in private support. “This landmark level of giving underscores the world-class excellence of UCSC’s faculty,” said University Relations Vice Chancellor Ronald P. Suduiko. “This success also was fueled by the energy and leadership of Chancellor Greenwood, Acting Chancellor Chemers, and our deans. Now, we will build on that success,” he promised. Examples of the contributions comprising the $32.2 million are included throughout this publication.

Annual benefit dinner raises $1 million

SUCCESS AND CELEBRATION characterized the 2004 Scholarships Benefit Dinner as more than 300 guests gathered to raise funds, honor former Chancellor M.R.C. Greenwood, and officially launch the UC Santa Cruz Cornerstone Campaign (see story at right). “We’ve raised one million dollars for student support,” exulted Acting Chancellor Martin M. Chemers, who announced the sum along with his cohosts for the event, UC Santa Cruz Foundation President Kenneth Feingold (Cowell ’71) and UCSC Alumni Association President Kenneth Doctor (Merrill ’71). “This landmark achievement allows us to continue offering opportunities for all deserving students, regardless of their financial capacity.”

Major new endowed fellowships announced at the dinner included the Jean H. Langenheim Fellowship in Plant Ecology and the Rebecca and Steve Sooy Graduate Fellowship in Marine Mammals. Donors also supported scholarships in memory of Alumni Association past president Eric Thomas (Oakes ’84) and William Alfred Chavez (Merrill ’76), who both had served as Foundation trustees.

Other fellowships announced were created by an anonymous donor in honor of four individuals: Ida Benson Lynn, M.R.C. Greenwood, UCSC Foundation trustee and nature photographer Frans Lanting, and author Christine Eckstrom.

Many supporters, including alumni, faculty, parents, and other friends, contributed to the dinner’s success. Among lead donors were Jean and Tim Weiss; Richard and Helen Spalding; the Ram Bhojwani family; Adobe Systems, Inc.; Richard (Cowell ’77) and Alison Crowell; Kenneth and Moira (Cowell ’72) Feingold; Anne and Paul Levin; M&M–Mars Co.; Patricia (Porter ’88) and Rowland Rebele; and UCSC Vice Chancellor Thomas Vani and his wife, Patricia Higgins Vani.

A silent auction preceding the dinner raised over $10,000.

Besides cochairs Feingold and Doctor, volunteer leadership for the dinner included Foundation trustees Harriet Deck, Susan Hammer, Anne Neufeld Levin, and Patricia Rebele.

Dinner guests rose in a standing ovation as UC Provost and Senior Vice President M.R.C. Greenwood received the UC Santa Cruz Foundation medal. (see photo, page 2). The medal is the highest nonacademic honor given by UC Santa Cruz.

The dinner culminated a two-day celebration that included the dedication of the Engineering 2 Building and the Jack Baskin Engineering Auditorium, and the presentation of the UC Santa Cruz Foundation Forum by speaker Lee Ting. At the former event, Engineering Dean Steve Kang announced a $1 million gift to establish the Kumar Malavalli Endowed Chair in Storage Systems Research and a $575,000 gift from Cisco Systems.

Cornerstone Campaign launched, emphasizing student support

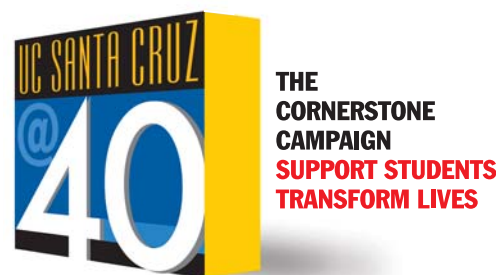

UC SANTA CRUZ LEADERS have announced the Cornerstone Campaign, the first campuswide fundraising effort in UCSC’s history. “We challenged ourselves with a goal of raising $50 million over a two-year period, and, thanks to several examples of outstanding philanthropy, I am delighted to announce that we already have received $45 million,” said Gordon Ringold (Crown ’72), chair of the Cornerstone Campaign Council, as he and Ronald P. Suduiko, University Relations vice chancellor, announced the campaign at the sold-out Scholarships Benefit Dinner.

Scheduled to end in June 2005, the campaign is a campuswide endeavor led by the University Relations development team in partnership with faculty, staff, administration, the UC Santa Cruz Foundation, and the UCSC Alumni Council. Among lead campaign gifts is a $17.5 million award from the Gordon and Betty Moore Foundation to the UCO/Lick Observatory (see page 3). This is the largest single private contribution in the campus’s history.

“We have an unprecedented opportunity to succeed in the Cornerstone Campaign, and students will be the beneficiaries,” said Suduiko. Within the overall $50 million goal, the campaign is seeking to raise $5 million for student support, including scholarships and fellowships, research, internships, and service learning. More than $3 million has already been raised for these purposes, including the over $1.5 million generated from the two successful Scholarships Benefit Dinners.

To make a gift to the Cornerstone Campaign, contact University Relations Vice Chancellor Ronald P. Suduiko, at (831) 459-4750 or rsuduiko@ucsc.edu, or Associate Vice Chancellor for Development Paul J. Prokop, at (831) 459-5718 or pjprokop@ucsc.edu. Or give online at <http://giveto.ucsc.edu/>.

From Acting Chancellor Chemers

What a milestone! The $32.2 million raised last year is a wonderful achievement, and I want to extend my personal thanks to each and every donor who made it possible. Because of their generosity, more of California’s most talented scholars are able to attend UC Santa Cruz, and our faculty are able to continue their world-changing research. Our donors are people who make a huge difference for UC Santa Cruz—their gifts truly transform lives.

Last year’s stellar fundraising success provided the backdrop to the second annual Scholarships Benefit Dinner, at which it was my privilege to announce that the dinner and related activities had raised $1 million for student support, a record-breaking achievement that doubled the amount generated through last year’s dinner. Like many of our students, alumni, and campus friends, I personally benefited from scholarship support when I was a student. In this time of rising costs, we all can appreciate the increasing need to offer our students the financial assistance that allows them to complete their studies at UC Santa Cruz.

Another highlight of the dinner on November 6 was the public announcement of the Cornerstone Campaign. The success of the silent phase of the campaign portends a grand finale to this first-ever campuswide fundraising effort, and I look forward to the announcement that we have exceeded the challenging goal of raising $50 million over the two-year period of the campaign.

State funding provides less than 50 percent of UCSC’s operating budget. Without the kinds of gifts described in this annual report, it would not be possible to educate all the students who will be tomorrow’s leaders, nor could our faculty’s research contribute to a better future for ourselves and our society.

Again, thank you for your generosity. As students speaking at the dinner emphasized, every gift counts and each gift makes a difference.

$1 million gift for engineering scholarships

WOMEN STUDYING engineering are the beneficiaries of a $1 million contribution from the estate of Barbara Snader to the Amy Beth Snader Memorial Scholarship Fund. The gift is UCSC’s third largest ever for scholarships and the second largest gift from an estate.

“We have a strong interest in supporting women in engineering, and these scholarships will help us recruit and retain the best students,” said Engineering Dean Steve Kang. Snader Scholarships are awarded to women in engineering on the basis of merit, and Kang noted that the recognition they provide to the recipients can be as important as the financial support. Currently, about 15 percent of undergraduates in the School of Engineering are women, which is on par with the national average.

“This award allowed me to finally buy a laptop for school,” said Skye Lena Vendt-Pearce, an electrical engineering major. “More scholarships like these help boost the number of women engineers.”

The scholarship fund was established by Barbara Snader in memory of her daughter, Amy, a UCSC alumna who earned a B.S. in computer science (Merrill ’83) and went on to a successful career as a software engineer at Santa Cruz Operation, a computer software company cofounded by UCSC alumnus Doug Michels (Porter ’76).

Extending impact of women’s studies

A SEMINAL COURSE by a UC Santa Cruz scholar of national reputation will soon be available to universities and high schools throughout the country, thanks to the initiative and generosity of individual donors.

Thousands of students have taken Bettina Aptheker’s Introduction to Feminism course since the professor of women’s studies and history first offered the class in 1980. “I saw the tremendous positive effect Professor Aptheker’s classes had on her students, and wished she could reach an even broader audience,” said Eric Zamost (Kresge ’91), who took the class in 1989. With Aptheker’s agreement, Zamost began the process of producing and distributing a broadcast-quality DVD of the course.

Many donors support this project, including women’s studies research associate Peggy Downes Baskin, whose gift helped cover filming costs, and women’s studies alumna D’vora Tirschwell (Kresge ’89). All the Introduction to Feminism lectures have now been filmed and are being edited. The goal is to have the DVDs ready for distribution in 2005, the 30th anniversary of the Women’s Studies Department.

“This is the first time an entire UC Santa Cruz course has been recorded at this quality level,” said Zamost. “The progress we’ve made so far wouldn’t have been possible without these many donations.”

UCSC professor emeritus and planned-giving participant Joseph Bunnett

Planned gifts benefit donors and UCSC

IT’S A WIN-WIN SITUATION,” said Professor of Chemistry Emeritus Joseph Bunnett. “To my way of thinking, it’s hard to say whether it’s a gift to this worthy institution, or an investment for my family.”

Bunnett is one of the growing number of UC Santa Cruz faculty, alumni, and friends who are choosing to support the campus through planned giving. By integrating their philanthropy into their overall financial, tax, and estate planning, these donors can gain tax benefits and create income streams for life.

A member of the UC Santa Cruz campus since 1966, Bunnett and his wife, Sara, have established a charitable remainder unitrust that will benefit Crown College.

A charitable remainder unitrust is one of the three most common life-income plans, all of which allow donors to make significant gifts in return for a lifetime stream of income to their designated beneficiary.

University Librarian Emeritus Allan J. Dyson, and his wife, Susan Cooper, chose a pooled income fund as their life-income plan. To recognize their contribution, a space in the McHenry Library addition will be named for Dyson.

When Lee and Dan Gilbert retired to Santa Cruz in 1985, they began auditing classes at UC Santa Cruz. This experience inspired them to endow a scholarship for re-entry students that is funded through a gift annuity.

Donors who make a planned gift to UC Santa Cruz are eligible to join the 21st Century Club. Benefits include a subscription to a newsletter that includes tax strategies and other financial planning tips.

To enroll in the 21st Century Club, or for more information on planned giving at UC Santa Cruz, contact Paul J. Prokop, Associate Vice Chancellor, Development, (831) 459-5718 or pjprokop@ucsc.edu.

Individual donors boost social sciences programs

UNDERGRADUATE STUDENTS in the social sciences benefited from the generosity of many individual donors last year, including some with firsthand experience of the value of a UC Santa Cruz education.

Alumnus Mark Headley (Stevenson '83) found his UC Santa Cruz education perfect preparation for his career as president and portfolio manager of Matthews International Capital Management LLC. "The work I was doing at UC Santa Cruz, comparing the economic development of countries, is exactly what I'm doing today," said Headley, who oversees portfolios across the Asian market that range from diversified, to regional, to country- and sector-specific.

Headley supports a UC Santa Cruz program that reflects both his studies and his professional interests: the Global Information Internship Program (GIIP). GIIP is a student-run internship program that trains undergraduates in the latest tools of information technology, which they in turn use to advance the causes of global justice, peace, and gender equity. The program's director is Paul Lubeck, a sociology professor and one of Headley's mentor faculty.

"I know Paul places these interns with families and in situations where he's been," said Headley. "He uses his social and professional network to allow students to experience something

Peter Raimondi, professor of ecology and evolutionary biology and principal investigator of UCSC's PISCO research group, teaching marine ecology to undergraduates that is almost off the charts for an American college student. I think that is much of what Santa Cruz is all about—trying to do things that are really different—and that make a difference."

The sky is not a limit

THE GORDON AND BETTY Moore Foundation awarded $17.5 million to the University of California for collaboration on a visionary project intended to build the world's most powerful telescope. UC's efforts on the project are based at UC Observatories/Lick Observatory, which is headquartered at UC Santa Cruz. "The University of California and Caltech will work in constant collaboration to achieve the design effort's goals," said Joseph Miller, director of UC Observatories/Lick Observatory. Coupled with a matching award from the Moore Foundation to Caltech, a total of $35 million is available for this project, known as the Thirty-Meter Telescope.

The David and Lucile Packard

Foundation renewed funding with a supplemental grant of $1.3 million to UCSC for continuing participation in the Partnership for Interdisciplinary Studies of Coastal Oceans (PISCO). Begun in 1999 with a five-year, $20 million grant from the Packard Foundation, PISCO is a consortium of marine scientists from UC Santa Cruz and three other major universities in California and Oregon who are conducting coordinated studies of coastal ecosystems. The unprecedented program includes research and monitoring of the intertidal zone, nearshore rocky reefs, and kelp beds along more than 1,200 miles of coastline in California and Oregon.

Literary estate gift enriches archive

THE UC SANTA CRUZ ARCHIVE of renowned science fiction writer Robert Heinlein grew with a trio of gifts last year: materials and cash from the estate of Heinlein's late widow, Virginia, and a grant from the Robert A. and Virginia Heinlein Prize Trust to establish the position of a Heinlein Scholar for the archive. The total value of these gifts is more than $340,000.

"When funding accompanies an archive, we are able to preserve and organize the material and more effectively provide access to unique resources," said Christine Bunting, head of Special Collections and Archives. Funding is used for special storage, scanning documents in permanent digital format, and creating online finding aids among other enhancements.

William H. Patterson Jr., the first Heinlein Scholar, is editor and publisher of the Heinlein Journal, a scholarly publication of Heinlein studies. Virginia Heinlein chose him to be her husband's biographer. "Integrating the bequest with the archive's principal holdings is an almost overwhelming but very rewarding job," Patterson said. The archive contains rare, interesting manuscripts, curiosities, and realia of interest to scholarly disciplines from American literature, to popular culture studies, to modern history.

"The Heinlein Prize Trust award allows a full-time scholar and resident expert to comb through the archive intensely," said Bunting. "In addition to his identification of archival material, Bill is an invaluable resource for library visitors interested in Robert Heinlein."

The Robert Heinlein Archive was established at UCSC in 1987. It contains a priceless collection of the author's original manuscripts, correspondence, and personal effects. The latest acquisition, which essentially doubled the volume of archival material, includes Heinlein's honors and tributes, artwork and other memorabilia, and his working and personal libraries.

Student support transforms lives

UC SANTA CRUZ OFFERS many ways to support students with excellent academic records and demonstrated financial need.

The Undergraduate Scholarship Fund, supported by annual gifts and other contributions, provides a primary source of support for exemplary students with financial need.

Some donors choose to establish funds that meet particular needs, such as the new Christy Anh-Thu Trinh-Malarney Student Prize, which will honor an exceptional UCSC senior with a commitment to increasing understanding or improving the welfare of people of Vietnamese heritage. The award was created to honor Trinh-Malarney (Merrill '90), who died in 2003.

"We wanted to do something that showed how much the campus meant to Christy," said her husband Shaun Malarney, about how he, his parents, and Christy's family created the award. "We hope that the recipients will show in their lives the same spirit and commitment that Christy did in hers."

For more information on supporting students through scholarships and awards, contact Ronaldo Ramirez, Director of Development, Student Affairs, (831) 459-2801 or affirm@ucsc.edu.

From the President of the Board

This past year has seen great achievement for our campus. Under the leadership of Acting Chancellor Martin M. Chemers and the foundation created by former Chancellor M.R.C. Greenwood, we reached a record $32.2 million in private gift support for fiscal year 2004. A new component of the Foundation's success is the inaugural and second annual Scholarships Benefit Dinner, which in its first two years has raised more than $1.5 million for student support, benefiting both undergraduate and graduate students.

We have worked to keep a UC Santa Cruz education accessible to all of the state's top students; however the need for additional student support at public four-year colleges and universities consumed 25 percent, on average, of the income for low-income families. Our Financial Aid Office expects an additional 6 percent increase in financial aid requests for 2004–05. To continue to meet the need for student support, we have launched the Cornerstone Campaign (see story, page 1). We are committed to maintaining the UC Santa Cruz dedication to excellence in education and to making the opportunity for excellence available to every student admitted to UC Santa Cruz.

All who work on behalf of UC Santa Cruz are dedicated to making the Cornerstone Campaign a success. I want to especially recognize and thank Gordon Ringold (Crown '72) for chairing the Campaign Council, and Kenneth Doctor (Merrill '71), president of the UCSC Alumni Association Council, for their work on behalf on this campaign.

A little more than a year ago, my wife, Moira (Cowell '72), and I attended the dedication of College Nine and College Ten. There was so much enthusiasm from the students at the "pioneer class" of these two colleges that Moira and I realized the dream we experienced in the early days of the campus is still very much alive for today's students.

I hope you'll join with us—and other alumni, parents, faculty, staff, and friends of UC Santa Cruz, in supporting the Cornerstone Campaign and keeping that dream alive for the next generations of alumni.

maven Carolyn Hyatt. As fundraiser extraordinaire, Carolyn organizes imaginative art auctions, throws parties like the "wedding reception" for the gala opening of The Taming of the Shrew, and personally sponsors a show each year. She supports the festival because "it is the most exciting local theater we have here on the Monterey Bay."

Local child star Gracie Winston indirectly brought her father Jon Winston onto the Shakespeare Santa Cruz board. Her performances in festival productions were, according to Jon, "life changing." He added, "Gracie's experience was magical." Already a festival supporter, Jon was on the board only briefly when he became a show sponsor. "Jill and I strongly support the arts, and we had a long affinity for the festival. Being a board member, I wanted to step up to a higher level of support."

Carolyn and Jon plan to continue their commitment. As Carolyn said, "I will support Shakespeare Santa Cruz in perpetuity." Who could ask for better friends?

For more information on supporting Shakespeare Santa Cruz and other Arts Division programs, contact Ann McCrow, Director of Development, (831) 459-2439 or aemccrow@ucsc.edu.

The arts NEED A LOT of help from their friends. Shakespeare Santa Cruz is fortunate to have a group of exceptional friends in its board of directors—volunteers who generously give their time, energy, and financial support.

A stellar example is long-time board member and events

This report honors the many UC Santa Cruz contributors who have invested in the achievements and future of this outstanding university. Many direct their gifts to one or more programs of special interest to them, such as a college, academic department, scholarship fund, or specific area of research.

THE WAYS OF GIVING are as diverse as the opportunities to join the campus in its mission of education, research, and service. The UC Santa Cruz Foundation welcomes outright gifts of cash, securities, and property. Gifts may also be pledged, with payment extended over time. There are also deferred giving options, including charitable remainder trusts, life insurance gifts, and bequests. Unrestricted gifts allow the campus to direct resources where they are needed most. Other vehicles for giving include annual giving, endowment gifts, special campaigns, and honorary and memorial giving.

The UC Santa Cruz Foundation welcomes all expressions of support. The Foundation has tax-exempt status granted under Section 501(c)(3) of the federal Internal Revenue Code, and all contributions to the Foundation are tax deductible to the extent allowed by law.

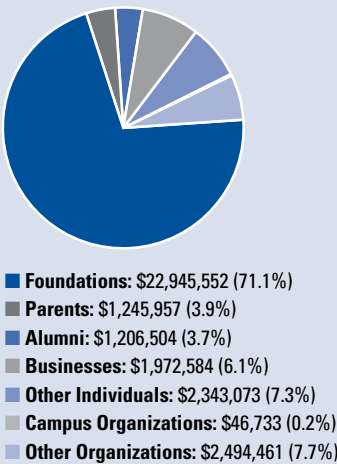

Financial data in this report were compiled prior to the final 2003–04 fiscal-year audit. Copies of the Foundation’s audited financial statement are available upon request.

We deeply appreciate the many individuals and organizations that support UC Santa Cruz, and are pleased to acknowledge their generous contributions.

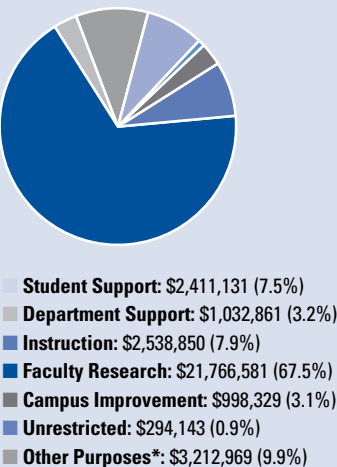

University Benefactors (pages 5–6) are individuals, foundations, businesses, and other organizations that have made cumulative contributions of $50,000 or more over the history of the campus. Through the 21st Century Club (page 6), we acknowledge those who have made deferred gifts to UCSC or informed the university that they are remembering the campus in their wills.

Contributors have made gifts or pledges totaling $100 or more to UC Santa Cruz between July 1, 2003, and June 30, 2004. Individual Contributors (pages 6–10) and Parent Contributors (parents of current students, pages 10–13), are recognized by giving club. Alumni Contributors (those who attended UCSC for three or more quarters, pages 13–19) are listed by class year and giving club. Annual Fund Tops $2.6 Million

THANKS TO THE DEDICATION AND SUPPORT of alumni, parents, and friends, the Annual Fund achieved its best year ever, with increased giving in each donor category. A total of 13,254 donors contributed $2.75 million through the fund, which enables individuals to make yearly gifts to a college, academic division, department, or program.

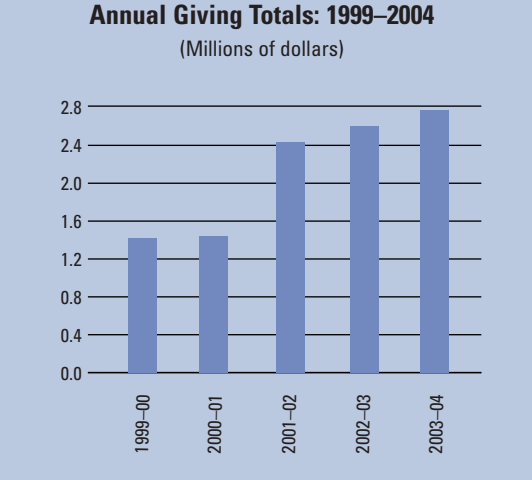

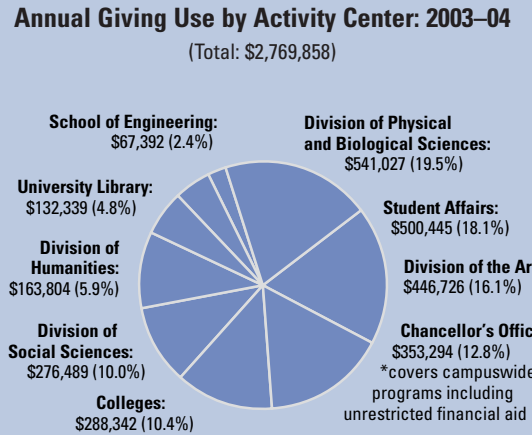

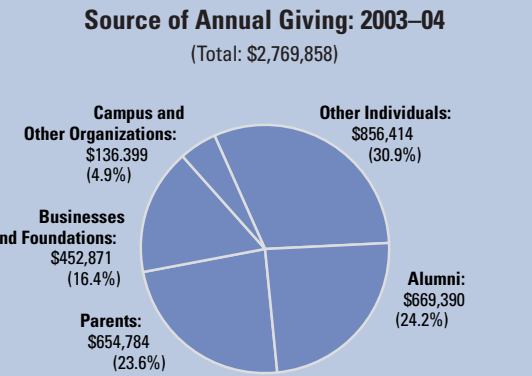

“Longtime and new supporters demonstrated their belief in UCSC this year,” said Jennifer Wood, development director for the Annual Fund and Colleges. “Despite a challenging economy, the number of donors continued to increase, and many donors gave more. All areas of the campus benefited from our Annual Fund donors this year.”

The 2003–04 Annual Fund featured successful new programs initiated by alumni volunteers (see story, page 20), including a challenge match that raised more than $80,000 to support the colleges.

The Telephone Outreach Program (TOP), a key component of the Annual Fund, also had a record year of $1.16 million. Undergraduates staff TOP, and many of the callers have experienced the generosity of donors firsthand, receiving need- and merit-based grants to support their studies.

For more information on how you can support UCSC through the Annual Fund, contact Jennifer Wood at (831) 459-2489 or jmwood@ucsc.edu.

Gifts can also be made online at <http://giveto.ucsc.edu>.

“You can have a good public university based on what the state budget is, but you can’t have a great public university without having the active involvement of donors in all sorts of areas, donors small and large.”

Alumni Council initiates Colleges Fund

THE NEW Alumni Colleges Fund offers an opportunity to help ensure that future students continue to benefit from UCSC’s unique living/learning college communities.

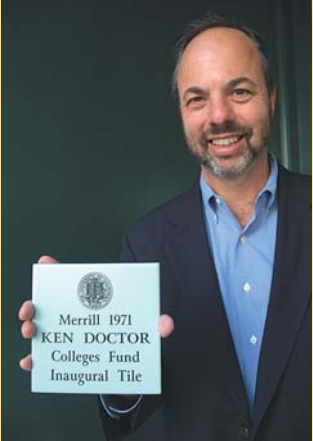

The UC Santa Cruz Alumni Association Council established the fund to support programs such as scholarships and academic awards; research, internship, and service learning opportunities; and other activities.

Gifts of $1,000 or more will be recognized by a personalized 6” by 6” tile displayed prominently at the donor’s chosen college. Those contributing $5,000 or more will be able to personalize a 12” by 12” tile. Gifts of less than $1,000 are also encouraged, as are donations to the All-Colleges Fund.

The tiles will be permanently displayed in a highly visible area within each college. They may be inscribed in a variety of meaningful ways, such as to honor an influential professor or commemorate a special event.

For more information on purchasing a tile or supporting the colleges through the Alumni Colleges Fund, contact Jennifer Wood, Director, Annual Fund and Colleges, (831) 459-2489 or jmwood@ucsc.edu.

Alumni donors show leadership giving

ALUMNI demonstrated generosity and ingenuity in their giving last year, with leadership gifts benefiting many areas of the campus. “This was truly a remarkable year for alumni giving,” said Kenneth Doctor (Merrill ’71), president of the UCSC Alumni Association Council. “The gifts we received from alumni reflect the achievements and commitment of our graduates.” As an example, Kathryn Sullivan (Cowell ’73) endowed a scholarship to help undergraduates gain real-world experiences in environmental stewardship and policy.

In total, alumni celebrating five-through 35-year reunions last year contributed more than $245,000. Class reunion giving was exemplified by the successful efforts of the class of 1974, spearheaded by lead gifts from UCSC

Foundation trustee Mary Doyle, Julie Packard, and John Woodward and Leslie Lingaas.

The UCSC Alumni Association Scholarship Fund now totals more than $1 million. Last year 43 students received scholarships from this fund.

For information on supporting programs such as these, contact Jennifer Wood, Director, Annual Fund and Colleges, (831) 459-2489 or jmwood@ucsc.edu.

We think—therefore we help halt a plague.

Joseph DeRisi
UC Santa Cruz Alumnus (B.S., biochemistry and molecular biology, Crown College '92)
MacArthur Fellow, 2004

When a mysterious virus infected thousands of people around the world, scientists worked urgently to identify the cause. In only 24 hours, Joe DeRisi and his UCSF lab identified and helped contain the virulent SARS virus.

As a method for rapidly identifying new pathogens, DeRisi’s innovations—a DNA chip and related software—can detect a wide range of viruses, providing frontline defense against emerging diseases, as well as known killers like malaria.

Upon becoming a 2004 MacArthur Fellow, DeRisi credited UC Santa Cruz with fostering his interest in science: “The tradition of bringing undergraduates into the lab and giving hands-on training gives Santa Cruz students a head start.”
